

The Adam Smith Seminar – WS2012/13

February 2nd, 2013 1 p.m. – 6 p.m.

The Adam Smith Seminar is an interdisciplinary research seminar for the presentation of new work in economics, politics, and philosophy. The atmosphere is open and informal.

The seminar is taking place at the University of Hamburg, Von-Melle-Park 5, Room: WiWi 2181.

- 13:00h Manfred Holler
Why this Workshop?
- 13:05h Johannes Schwarze
Law and Economics Perspective on Music File Sharing: Power over Content – The Real Rationale Behind the Music Industry's War on File Sharing.
- 13:50h Peter Kulasza
Crowd-investment. A New Playing Field for Global Regulation.
- 14:35h Jan Schmitz
Inter-Charity Competition for Individuals' Contributions - Experimental Testing of Substitution-, Complementary- and Crowding-Out Effects.
- 15:20h Recess
- 15:40h Andreas Nohn
Participation Indices.
- 16:15h Ortrud Leßmann
Agency, Ethics and Economics: Sen's Capability Approach as an Ethical Economic Theory.
- 16:50h Marlies Ahlert
Determinants of Equity Judgments in Medical Contexts - A Cross-Cultural Study in Norway and Germany.
- 17:25h Hartmut Kliemt
Bukantianism.